

Asia Tin Week 2025

Hong Kong China

19-21 November 2025

Co-host: Yunnan Tin Group (Holding) Co., Ltd.

Co-host: Honghe Prefecture Hongtou Industrial and Commercial Co., Ltd.

Wednesday, 19th November 2025

10:00- Conference Registration

18:30

18:00- Welcome Reception

20:30

Thursday, 20th November 2025

Session 1 – Welcome to Asia Tin Week 2025

09:00	Setting the global agenda for a sustainable and resilient tin industry	Helen Prins, CEO, International Tin Association (ITA)
	Highlighting Hong Kong's strategic role as a global metals hub and gateway to Asia	Joseph Chan, Under Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau, the Government of Hong Kong SAR
	Remarks from the world's leading tin producer on strengthening industry collaboration and innovation	Shouli Han, General Manager, Yunnan Tin Group (Holding) Co., Ltd. (YTC)
	China's Nonferrous Metal Futures: Powering Stability in the Global Metals Industry	Feng Lu, Vice President, Shanghai Futures Exchange (SHFE)
	Sharing perspectives from industry partner on responsible growth and China's evolving tin supply chain	Guangxi Huaxi Nonferrous Metals

Session 2 – Keynote & Market Outlook

09:30	Global Macro Trends to 2026: Navigating Economic Shifts, Geopolitical Tensions and Policy Risks	Chang Shu, Chief Asia Economist, Bloomberg, TBC
	High-Quality Development in China's Nonferrous Metals Sector: From Competition to Coordination	Xuesen Chen, Vice President, China Nonferrous Metals Industry Association (CNIA)
	Global Tin Market Outlook: Supply Dynamics, Price Trends, and Investment Signals	Tom Langston, Senior Analyst, ITA
	China and Asia Tin Markets Outlook: Anchoring Stability Amid Global Volatility	Zheyu Zhang, Senior Analyst, YTC
11:20	Networking break

Session 3 – Panel discussion: Asia’s Pivotal Role in Building a Resilient Global Tin Supply Chain

11:40	- LME Tin Warehouse in Hong Kong – Turning Ambition into Action - China’s Tin Futures Market – A Decade of SHFE Tin Futures: Review and Outlook - Asian Tin Futures Markets – Elevating Tin’s Financial Presence - Producers’ Perspective – Toward a Stable and Sustainable Tin Ecosystem	Moderator: Tiger Shi, CEO of Bands Financial Ltd. Panelist: Yang Liu, LME Kun Xiao, SHFE Xiongjun Chen, YTC PT Timah Tbk, TBC Bonnie Liu, GF Futures (HK) Co., Ltd. Benjamin Wong, InvestHK
12:40	Lunch	Sponsored by GF Futures (Hong Kong) Co., Ltd.

Session 4 – Securing Tin Supply: A Global Focus with Asia at the Core

14:00	Opening Insights – Global Supply Risks and New Project Pipeline	Huanbo Qin, Analyst, ITA
	China's Tin Industry for the Future: An Innovation-Driven Development Strategy with Yunnan at Its Core	Hongtong Industry
	Navigating Indonesia's Policy Shifts: Industry at a Crossroads	Rani Febrianti, MIND ID
	Strategy for Circular Tin in Thailand: Scaling Secondary Production	Jonathan Lund, Thaisarco
	Commercial Outlook on Tin Recovery From E-waste	Radu Hari Sahal, ATTERO, TBC

Session 5 – Navigating ESG Expectations, Compliance, and Impact – Tin Industry in Transition

15:45	Downstream Voice – ESG in Practice: What Buyers Expect and Why It Matters	Kim Vu, Applied Materials, TBC
--------------	---	--------------------------------

Navigating Local and Global Challenges: the ITSCI Programme's Strengthened Support for Responsible 3T Mineral Sourcing from Central Africa" Mickaël Daudin, iTSCI

Bridging Upstream and Downstream Through Collaborative ESG Initiatives and the Tin Code Ryan Wen, ITA

16:30 Networking break

Session 6 – CEO Panel: Charting the Future of Tin in a Divided World

17:00 - Rethinking Tin's Role in the Global Critical Minerals Narrative Moderator — Helen Prins, CEO, ITA

 - Upstream Realities: Pressure on Supply, Urgency of New Resource Development, new pathway forward under low TC for smelters Panelists — CEOs

 - From Fragility to Resilience: Managing Global Disruptions and Building Adaptive Supply Chains YTC, OMSA, PT Timah, Guangxi Huaxi, MSC, Minsur, Qiandao

 - Geopolitics and Regional Realignment: What They Mean for Tin Trade and Investment

 - Substitution and Innovation: Balancing Risk and Unlocking New Tin Applications

 - Market Drivers: How Digitalization, Decarbonization, and the Energy Transition Will Shape Tin Demand

 - Towards Sustainable and Value-Added Growth: Building the Tin Industry of Tomorrow

18:00 Day ends

19:30 Welcome Dinner

Friday, 21st November 2025

Session 7 – Tin in Solder: Innovation, Performance and Market Trends

09:00 Tin Downstream: Regional Dynamics and Supply Chain Insights YTC New Materials, TBC

 The Future of Tin-Based Solder: Analysis of Trends and Challenges Chunfang Zi, CTO, Vital New Material

 A Study on Vacuum Soldering Paste with Formic Acid Fen Chen, Indium Corp (Suzhou)

Panel Discussion: Tin's Future in Solder and Beyond TBC

10:30 Networking break

Session 8 – Innovation Spotlight: Sustainable Tin Technologies

11:00 Malaysia's Tin Industry Transformation: Toward Greener and Lower-Carbon Production MSC, TBC

Low Carbon Production Technologies for Tin Jon Bøhmer, Huma Solar

Driving Innovation: ITA's Technology Focus Today and Tomorrow Georgia Laurie, ITA

An update for research on hydrogen reduction of North South University, cassiterite TBC

Panel Discussion: Innovation in Sustainable Tin Technologies TBC

12:30 Lunch

13:30 Day ends

13:30- Social Networking -Sightseeing tour (55 US$ fee applies)

20:00 Hong Kong's Tai O Fishing Village——Tai O-one of Hong Kong's last traditional fishing ports, is a place where crisscrossing waterways replace bustling streets and stilt houses built along the water exude a homely atmosphere.