Responsible Tin Network – Subscription Fee & Deliverables

Value

The Responsible Tin Network (RTN) brings together key stakeholders from across the tin supply chain to develop collective solutions, deepen engagement between upstream and downstream actors, and drive measurable progress on shared priorities.

Subscription Fee

$2,500 USD per year

- The subscription fee applies to all RTN participants. International Tin Association (ITA) members are exempt, as they already contribute through their ITA membership.
- Participants joining during 2026 will be charged a pro-rata fee calculated from their joining date to 31st December 2026.
- The subscription renews annually on 1st January at the full annual fee.
- For participants transitioning from a free to a paid subscription, please see the section Transition to Paid Subscription below.
- The fee covers the administrative costs incurred by International Tin Association Ltd in managing the RTN and delivering the activities listed under Deliverables.

Deliverables

Sessions and Meetings

- A minimum of 6 working group sessions per year, designed for in-depth discussion, held virtually.
- Discussions to focus on key industry challenges, country and risk insights, knowledge sharing, and the development of practical, collaborative solutions and tools.
- Opportunity for in-person meetings aligned with key industry events (e.g., International Tin Conference, RBA/RMI Conference, OECD Forum for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals).

Technical Trainings

- One to two complementary training sessions per year covering key elements of the OECD Due Diligence Guidance, the Tin Code and Assurance, and emerging policies and regulations.
- Training sessions will include participation certificates and access to relevant materials, such as fact sheets and templates.
- Sessions will be delivered by ITA experts with experience in minerals, 3T, and operational due diligence in sourcing countries, as well as by relevant guest speakers.

Special Access to ITA's Markets team

- Opportunities for Markets team Analysts to contribute to RTN sessions through presentations on current market insights, including tin origins, trading patterns, and market risks.
- Ability to connect directly with experts on the Market's team through booking an introductory one-to-one meeting.

Sustainability Analysis

- Notices and expert analysis flagging key sustainability developments and trends.
- To include relevant, first-hand insights from producing regions, particularly on ESG-related topics.

On-the Ground Projects Development

- Opportunities to identify, help shape, support, or participate in on-the ground projects aimed at driving meaningful progress, and delivering community-level impact.
- Engagement based on member interest, demand, access to separate funding, and project feasibility.

Transition to fee subscription (for participants who initially joined on free subscription)

Deadline

- Companies will be invoiced on September 1st 2026 and will have 30-days from the invoice date to complete payment (pro-rata for 2026).
- Companies that have applied form agreeing to the Terms and Conditions but require longer than the standard 30-days to complete payment, should contact the International Tin Association to discuss a suitable grace period. From January 2027, standard payment terms of 30 days from the invoice date will apply.
- If the company has not completed any application, or payment is not completed by the above deadline (or the agreed grace period), the company will no longer be able to participate and benefit from access to the Responsible Tin Network.